NOTES

1. Students are strongly encouraged to complete their SDV, ENG, and MTH requirements first.
2. General education and major degree requirements will vary by institution and by program. Students must meet with their academic advisor to determine the best choices for transfer. Note that some course options have prerequisites.
3. Music Electives include those courses listed under Applied Music and Ensemble Music Electives. Some four-year programs require a foreign language. See advisor to determine best options for transfer. Note that some options have prerequisites.
4. Voice majors are generally required to take French, German, or Italian. JTCC offers FRE courses online and on campus whereas *GER courses are offered online only through Northern Virginia Community College. Italian is not currently being offered. Students transferring to programs that require a foreign language should enroll in the highest-level foreign language course for which they are prepared. Heritage or conversationally fluent speakers may enroll directly into 102. See advisor to determine best options for transfer.
5. Students should regularly meet with their faculty advisor and check their advisement report in MyTyler – SIS.
